

SUBJECT: UNIVERSITY NOTIFICATION

DATE: March 17, 2020

Dear NDNU Community Members,

We want to again thank all of our students, their families, advocates, and community members for helping us secure our campus as we manage the current global coronavirus crisis. Following national and regional directives, we are confirming that effective today NDNU is in “Shelter-in-place” status, meaning that our students are safely secured on campus. NDNU will remain in this status until recommended otherwise as we learn more about the spread of the coronavirus. We want to thank our on-campus staff and Public Safety team members who will continue to have an on-campus presence.

We report that there are currently no reported cases of coronavirus on campus and prevention continues to be key. We urge are on campus community to practice social distancing and all CDC recommendations. If you experience any COVID-19 symptoms, please self-isolate and promptly reach out to Annabelle Bautista at agbautista@ndnu.edu or call (650) 508-3759.

Door-to-door, bed-to-bed checks will remain standard practice throughout NDNU’s “Shelter-in-place” status. We ask that all students to follow stipulated guidelines from Public Safety and Housing staff.

NDNU EMPLOYEES (FACULTY & STAFF)

Only essential personnel remain on campus. If you begin to experience any symptoms, please follow CDC guidelines and access healthcare information here.
