Movie Theaters: Closest multiplexes are in San Mateo, Redwood City. A high-end movie theater is located at the Hillsdale Mall. Independent films can be found and seen in Palo Alto and San Francisco.

Town Library: The Belmont Library is located at 1110 Alameda de las Pulgas, and is a local treasure. A service offered to anyone with a library card is the chance to check out a bicycle for a week.

Transit:

- NDNU's campus is positioned extremely conveniently (11 minute walk, .5 miles) to a train service running from San Francisco to San Jose called Cal Train. <https://www.caltrain.com/schedules/>
- NDNU's Campus is equally conveniently located for North/South Bus and local Transit via the SamTrans system. Schedules and maps can be found here: <https://www.samtrans.com/schedulesandmaps.html>
- Lyft and Uber offer personal car-service via online apps which can be found and downloaded from the Apple App Center or from Google Play.

Parks Nearby: Some might be content to simply hike around NDNU's 40-acre campus – luckily for the rest, Belmont has over 15 parks. A nice one is just across the street from NDNU – Twin Pines Park. June-July, you'll find Sunday concerts in Twin Pines Park from 1-4pm. For miles of rambling, search out WaterDog Lake Open Space, just 1.2 miles from campus.

Local Events: If time permits – keep an eye out for something interesting via Eventbrite, items posted in Belmont Patch, or in SF via <https://sf.funcheap.com> which profiles fun, free activities happening in the city or other locales.
