

Master of Arts in Education

Join NDNU To Make A Lasting Impact

This degree program aims to empower educators to promote social justice through enhanced teaching, curriculum development, instructional design, assessment, program planning, and research. It also prepares graduates for leadership and consulting roles in educational organizations.

Why NDNU?

Earn your accredited degree within 18-months

Experience flexible 8-week hybrid or 100% online courses

Thrive in small classes that promote interactive, hands-on learning

Scholarships and financial aid available

Learn from experienced faculty with real world expertise

Now Available 100% Online
Tuition Costs Reduced By 30%

Graduate Programs that Transform Careers

This program focuses on curriculum and instruction, with four courses designed to enhance skills in curriculum development and assessment.

Distinctions of the Program

- Tuition is $595 per unit for a total program cost of $17,850
- Candidates used action research as the foundation for their master's thesis, allowing the opportunity to investigate in depth a particular area of curriculum and instruction within their own classroom or school
- Credentialed teachers can transfer up to 6-units of graduate level coursework not applied to another degree
- Program graduates include master teachers, mentors, department chairs, school leaders, instructional designers, curriculum developers, educational consultants, managers in non-profit organizations, college and university faculty

About NDNU

Founded over 170 years ago, NDNU is an WSCUC accredited, private, Catholic, co-educational master's and undergraduate degree completion university, located on the San Francisco Peninsula in Silicon Valley. NDNU broadens the perspective and outlook of its students by exposing them to peers with diverse backgrounds, cultures and world views.

Learn More

 (650) 508-3600

 admissions@ndnu.edu

 www.ndnu.edu